Marion Preminger, Assistant To Famed Dr. Schweitzer, Speaks Here Tuesday

Marion Mill Preminger who left the world of society to work in the African jungle hospital of Dr. Albert Schweitzer, will speak on her work with Dr. Schweitzer at the Town Hall meeting Tuesday night at 8:15 in the Salem High School auditorium.

As a school girl studying philosophy at the University of Vienna, Mrs. Preminger wrote her doctor's thesis about the renowned medical missionary.

In 1950 Mrs. Preminger met the doctor in France, and she followed him to Africa to work at his leper hospital at Lambarene. Each year in January the ex-socialite and party-giver goes to Africa to aid in the hospital work at Schweitzer's mission.

To celebrate Dr. Schweitzer's 80th birthday this year, Mrs. Preminger organized the Albert Schweitzer Hospital Fund and raised $80,000 to take to Africa to assist at the leper colony. She has represented the doctor when he was honored at the American Medical Association convention, the New York Academy of Medicine and the American Geriatrics Society in New York.

Schweitzer, who has been called "the greatest genius since Leonardo da Vinci," is a Nobel Peace prize winner, physician, missionary, philosopher, theologian, world authority on Bach and Goethe, author, organ builder and master musician.

For years Mrs. Preminger was socially prominent in New York where she appeared on numerous "best dressed lists" and became known on two continents as a famous hostess.

Mrs. Preminger is at work on three books, "The Thirteenth Apostle" based on Schweitzer's life and philosophy; a narration of her experiences with the doctor at the leper colony; and a children's book about animals in the jungle.

A charity worker for several years, Mrs. Preminger has worked with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is a nutritionist and nurses instructor for the American Red Cross, is a member of the World Parliament of Religions, and the American National Theatre Academy to spread American culture abroad.

Grange Charges Government Aids Foreign Farming

Overseas Markets Cut, While Surpluses Pile Up In U. S., Is Charge

CLEVELAND (AP)—While a farm emergency exists at home, the government is blocking competitive sale of surplus crops overseas by encouraging old customers to raise their own farm products, the nation's oldest farm organization charged today.

Such government practices are making "second-class citizens" out of the little and middle-sized American farmers, whose income has dropped to prewar levels, it was stated in a report adopted last night by delegates to the National Grange convention.

The Grange has a membership of 850,000 in 37 states. It's 89th annual convention closes today.

"American agriculture is in a state of emergency," the report said. It added:

"Neither 90 per cent, nor 75 per cent, nor 60 per cent price support levels provide any assurance against the buildup of surplus stocks of major export crops as long as government policies block the competitive sale of those crops on the world market."

"As one branch of the government is sponsoring lower price supports and advocating curtailment of production, another branch of the government is restricting foreign sales and endorsing huge expenditures to expand the agricultural output of foreign nations that once were our customers."

Nations Now Compete

"These foreign nations are now competing with us and underselling us."

Delegates were told that nine per cent of the nation's farmers produce 51 per cent of farm commodities that move commercially. Some 1,500,000 farmers earn less than $1,000 a year, while on a somewhat higher scale are 3,300,000 family farmers.

The report said their incomes have been sliding down in order to foster agriculture in other countries, at the same time that the nation's wages, corporation earnings, retailing, processing, communications companies and other parts of the economy are experiencing record prosperity.

Approved by the Grange were resolutions favoring social security for farmers, expansion of federal highway programs, catastrophe in-

Lisbon Woman Hurt When Car Upsets

Two highway mishaps, one hospitalizing a 31-year-old Lisbon woman, were investigated by state patrolmen Thursday.

In a one-car accident on Route 517, six miles east of Lisbon at 1:50 a.m., a car driven west by Mrs. Elwood Barber, 31, of RD 2, Lisbon, went out of control, causing the vehicle to go off the left side of the road and turn over in a ditch.

Mrs. Barber was brought to Salem City Hospital with a fractured right shoulder and bruised knees. She is in good condition today.

The auto was demolished in the crash. Mrs. Barber was cited by patrolmen for reckless operation.

Minor damage was sustained by two cars involved in a collision on Route 30, two miles northeast of East Liverpool, at 5:25 p.m. Patrolmen said Sarah Davis, 63, of RD 2, East Liverpool, attempted to make a left turn with her east-bound car and pulled into the path of a west-bound auto being driven by Gordon Reynolds, 27, of RD 1, Lisbon.

Mrs. Davis was cited by patrolmen for failure to yield the right of way.

Grand Jury To Probe Area Vote Campaign

The county election board was advised by letter today by Prosecuting Attorney James L. MacDonald that charges of circulating unsigned political literature in the Nov. 8 election campaign in the Fairfield - Waterford School District "will be brought to the attention of the Grand Jury at the January, 1956, term of court."

The election board asked MacDonald to set up the investigation after receiving complaints from eight district voters of the circulation of unsigned sample ballots urging election of four school board members and the passage of the $475,000 bond issue to construct a new high school.

The bond issue failed. Circulation of unsigned political campaign literature is forbidden by the Ohio Corrupt Practices act.

Report 75 Per Cent Complete

Survey Engineers, Salem Officials Meet Tonight

The Michael Baker Jr. Co., engineering firm of Rochester, Pa., revealed in its work schedule and progress report to Mayor Dean B. Cramer Wednesday that Salem's arterial highway report is 75.75 per cent complete.

A breakdown of the report included progress on the following categories in the project:

Basic data, 100 per cent complete; engineering study, 90 per cent complete; narrative and cost estimates, 90 per cent complete; preparation of exhibits, 75 per cent complete; and printing, not begun.

The Baker company stipulated it would complete the highway survey within a period of four months from the date the contract was signed last May 26. Preparation of the overall comprehensive plan will require eight months, with an additional two months for drafting the zoning reports.

Salem councilmen and other city officials will meet as a committee of the whole tonight at 7 in City Hall to discuss with engineers of the Baker company an explanatory report to give city officials some idea of what is to be done with the final report.

Others to attend the meeting besides city councilmen will be members of the City Planning Commission, Mayor Cramer and City Engineer R. S. Barckhoff.

Cost of the highway survey is $9,000, of which 95 per cent will be reimbursed later by the state.

The highway survey has been declared necessary by both state and local officials if Salem is to receive state and federal aid for future road projects.

ICC Also Rules Out Segregation In Public Waiting Rooms

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered an end to racial segregation on interstate trains and passenger buses. It ruled too that segregation of interstate travelers in public waiting rooms is unlawful.

The commission, in years past has gone along with the theory that separate accommodations for the races met the requirements of the Interstate Commerce Act, so long as they are equal.

But it said in today's ruling: "The disadvantage to a traveler who is assigned accommodations or facilities so designated as to imply his inherent inferiority solely because of his race must be regarded under present conditions as unreasonable."

Cite Annoyances

"Also, he is entitled to be free of annoyances, some petty and some substantial, which almost inevitably accompany segregation even though the rail carriers, as most of the defendants have done here, sincerely try to provide both races with equally convenient and comfortable cars and waiting rooms."

The ICC returned its findings in two separate cases. One was initiated by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People against 13 railroads, operating principally in the South.

The other case was brought before the commission by Sarah Keys, New York city beautician. She charged that while serving as a WAC in 1952, she was refused further transportation by the Carolina Coach Co. of Raleigh, N. C., when she refused a driver's demand that she move to the back of the bus at Roanoke Rapids, N. C.

The orders in these cases outlawing segregation drew one dissent. Commissioner J. Monroe Johnson of South Carolina, one of the 11 members, asserted:

"It is my opinion that the commission should not undertake to anticipate the (Supreme) Court and itself become a pioneer in the sociological field."

Commissioner Everett Hutchinson of Texas was announced as "necessarily absent" and not participating in the cases.

The ICC took note that the Supreme Court has ruled that the

Nuclear Blast Fallout Collected by British

LONDON (AP)—The News Chronicle said today that British jets flew to 50,000 feet and gathered samples of the radioactive fall out from Russia's recent nuclear weapons test.

Official sources declined to discuss the report.

The newspaper said the Russian test was so powerful that Soviet authorities must have cleared an area in their Siberian testing grounds twice the size of England and Wales to conduct it.

The News Chronicle said the samples were collected Thursday and added:

"From first tests on the samples, atomic scientists at Harwell and Aldermaston (British atomic research stations) believe that the explosion was no ordinary H-bomb, but the far more devastating hydrogen-uranium bomb."

"Yesterday's rainfall is being studied for any signs of increasing radioactivity in the lower atmosphere."

According to the story the United States fired a similar bomb at Bikini in March 1954.

Russians Plan Aid For India

Khrushchev Claims Iron Curtain Is Open

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—While the Kremlin's two bigwigs are touring India and making speeches, their top aides here are examining ways of supplying promised Russian technical and economic aid to the subcontinent.

Indian sources said today talks on the subject are under way between high officials of the Foreign Office and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and Deputy Trade Minister Pavel N. Kymukin. They remained in New Delhi when Premier Bulganin and Communist Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev struck out on their tour.

Mining Experts Arrive

Five Russian mining experts already have reached the capital to advise the Indian government on prospecting for oil and nonferrous metals.

Bulganin and Khrushchev headed through southern India's rich agricultural section today after a two-day visit to Bombay.

Khrushchev, addressing the Indian-Soviet Cultural Society in Bombay, claimed that Russia has torn aside the Iron Curtain. Challenging other countries to open their frontiers — "as we have" — to foreigners, he said:

None Refused Visas

"No one who applied for permission to enter the Soviet Union was refused a visa this year. Why, we had at least 17 American senators touring Russia this year, I believe, as well as farmers, newsmen, and others. Does that sound like an Iron Curtain?"

Khrushchev sounded a warning to the West, saying:

"Russia does not stand alone today. We have many other countries who think as we do, and India is among them."

"In competition for peace we are sure to win. The capitalist press accused me of making a slip of the tongue when I said that in Moscow — they said my tongue was loose — but it was no slip. We will not deviate from the path set for us by Lenin."

He added that he doesn't "like the capitalist system, and when I speak about coexistence it is not for the purpose of continuing that system. But I give de facto recognition to capitalism and grant that it does exist."

Khrushchev was cheered when he said Russia would not beg for coexistence but would fight for it. He declared the Russians "are determined to maintain and expand world peace."

State of Siege To Begin In Brazil Today

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—A declaration of state of siege, approved by Congress, was expected to take effect today.

All that was needed to put Brazil under a modified form of martial law was publication of the declaration in the government's official bulletin.

The Senate voted final legislative approval Thursday night 35-15. Earlier in the day the Chamber of Deputies had approved the measure, requested by Provisional President Nereu Ramos, 178-91.

Ramos and his Cabinet signed it today. Publication of the official bulletin could be delayed till Saturday morning.

Prime object of the declaration is to prevent the Supreme Court from reinstating Joao Cafe Filho in the presidency. He took a leave of absence Nov. 8 after a slight heart attack.

Powerful army leaders headed by the war minister, Gen. Henrique Teixeira Lott, opposed Cafe's resumption of power. They suspect him of participating in an alleged plot to block the inauguration next Jan. 31 of President-elect Juscelino Kubitschek, political heir of the late President Getulio Vargas.

Congress extended Cafe's "disability" from office indefinitely. He appealed to the Supreme Court, which has not ruled in the case. Cafe is now under virtual house arrest.

Deputy Probes New Burglary In County

LISBON — Burglars entered a business place in the Calcutta area Wednesday night for the third time in about four days, the Columbiana County Sheriff's office reported today.

Deputy Sheriff Richard Judge said a lawnmower shop on St. Clair Ave. in East Liverpool owned by Scott Dawson, was broken into and a quantity of tools taken.

The lawnmower shop is about a mile from the L. & M. Hardware in Calcutta, scene of two burglaries — Monday at 12:45 a.m. and sometime Wednesday morning.

Three Pennsylvania youths were caught in the first burglary. No clues were found during the investigation of the other hardware burglary. In that one, the burglars took about $3,000 in cash and about $1,000 in checks from a safe and $500 in merchandise.

Faure Regime's End Seen Near

National Crisis Expected In Week

PARIS (AP)—Under fierce attacks from its enemies, almost abandoned by its friends and out of breath from past efforts, Premier Edgar Faure's government appears nearing the end of its nine-month-old life.

Many deputies in the National Assembly are openly predicting the start of a Cabinet crisis within a week. The Premier himself is reported ready for anything and expecting the worst.

Faure got into his new trouble over how and when to hold early general elections. His enemies, and even a few of his political allies, are waiting only to decide how and when to get rid of him. An excuse might be found as early as Saturday, or the situation may be allowed to string along until next week.

Some favor a debate on general policies, or on Morocco, which might lead the Premier to ask for a vote of confidence. He could then be eased aside. Others want to force Faure to hang himself on the election issue, which has split the Cabinet wide open.

Until he brought up the idea of voting in December, instead of next June as regularly scheduled, the Premier had been able to patch up Assembly majorities to approve major policies. Now it seems doubtful he can get backing for anything.

The election issue gave former Premier Pierre Mendes-France and other leading Radical Socialist deputies the chance to move into open opposition. Faure is also a Radical Socialist, but many members of his party for a long time have supported him only to make a show of party unity.

On the last two votes of confidence on Faure's demand for December elections under a system of proportional representation, the Cabinet survived only through the backing of the Communists.

Faure's troubles started Oct. 6 when he ousted four Social Republican (Gaullist) ministers who openly opposed his policies in Morocco. Since then, he has had no assured working majority of the Assembly.

December elections now are out of the question. There is still a slim hope for a January vote, but few deputies believe that even this is possible. There seems almost no chance for any vigorous action in any field by the government during the present state of uncertainty over elections.

QUINT ILL?—A news blackout is believed to have been ordered by the Dionne family concerning the illness of Marie, frailest of the four surviving Dionne quintuplets. Unconfirmed reports say Marie left a Quebec City convent to enter the Notre Dame de l'Esperance hospital near Montreal for treatment of pernicious anemia. But the hospital denies she is there, and switchboard operators refuse to put through calls to two of Marie's sisters, Cecile and Yvonne, who are training to be nurses there.

Liberalism vs. Moderation

While the northern wing of the Democratic party is trying to avoid a recurrence of the friction that split the Democratic convention in 1952, there are still signs that it doesn't see eye to eye with the southern wing on the party's role for the future.

The northern liberals have agreed not to press for the "loyalty oath," by which all delegates to the convention would pledge support for the party nominee, but they are showing no signs of yielding to the conservative south on the issue of moderation.

Without mentioning names, Former President Truman told party leaders in Chicago that he will work for the nomination of a liberal and progressive candidate, which is exactly where one might expect to find him.

Whether that candidate might be Adlai Stevenson or Axelrod Harriman, Truman will not say at this time, but he is showing a very strong affinity for the things Stevenson is saying, which would seem to indicate a preference for the 1952 nominee.

Harriman is perhaps even more liberal than Stevenson, but in this respect he is not likely to be a favorite in the south, where the spirit of conservatism still runs high.

While the Democrats are pressing for unity within the party, Truman struck the keynote when he said that he didn't believe in unity obtained at the price of compromise that would steer the party on a conservative course.

Evidence that all party leaders are not of one mind on the subject of liberalism is the sentiment of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, majority leader in the Senate.

Sen. Johnson has been telling visitors that he favors the adoption of a moderate platform at next year's convention. Harriman has already indicated there might be a fight on that point.

It will be interesting to see how the divergent point of view fall in place come convention time.

If President Eisenhower should decide to seek a second term, it is our guess that the Democrats will compromise some of their liberalism with southern conservatism in a bid to recapture some of the Dixie ground they lost in 1952.

The School Problem

By JAMES MARLOW

Conference May Find Some of the Answers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House Conference on Education, opening a four-day meeting here Monday, may find some answers to the school problem — but.

There is skepticism that the 1,800 men and women — teachers, labor, farm and civic leaders, businessmen and professional people — coming from 48 states and the territories with divergent views can reach agreements.

The conference already is being called a game of musical chairs because of unusual seating arrangements and procedures which will not permit wide-open debate or voting.

The delegates will have to transport their business through discussion in small groups. They will be seated at 180 tables, 10 to a table.

Before looking at the background of this conference, and what it faces, here are the six questions which will be discussed:

(1) What should our schools accomplish? (2) In what ways can we organize our school systems more efficiently and economically? (3) What are our school building needs? (4) How can we get enough good teachers—and keep them? (5) How can we finance our schools—build and operate them? (6) How can we obtain a continuing public interest in education?

President Eisenhower in his State of the Union message Jan. 7, 1954, proposed a national conference on education. Since preparation was needed, he wrote the governors and executives of the territories and possessions, suggesting this:

That they call conferences of people from various walks of life—teachers, labor people, civic leaders, and so on—to talk over what they thought should be done. Meanwhile, Eisenhower appointed ed a 34-man committee of his own —also from various groups—headed by Neil H. McElroy, president of the Procter & Gamble Co. of Cincinnati.

All the states and territories had conferences. The president's committee met a number of times. Congress voted $900,000 to pay the over-all expenses. Now the delegates have come here for the big meeting.

This is how the conference will work:

Each table of 10 picks a chairman, then discusses the six questions one at a time, starting with No. 1.

Each chairman draws up a report on what he thinks was the majority view at his table on question No. 1. Then these 180 chairmen move to 18 tables, 10 to a table, pick a chairman, and discuss problem No. 1.

Then each of these 18 chairmen draws up a report on what he thinks was the majority view at his table. Next the 18 chairmen move to two tables, nine to a table. Each table picks a chairman and discusses problem No. 1.

The two remaining chairmen get together and draw up a report on what they think was the majority view at their two tables. And they make their report to all 1,800 conferees.

Then the whole thing starts over again on question No. 2. And so on until all majority views on all six questions have been reported to the conference. These six reports from the conference are to go to the President's 34-man committee.

Sometime in January, perhaps, this committee will make recommendations to the President. Then it's up to Eisenhower to make recommendations, if any, to Congress.

'Dormitory Loans'

By ALAN EMORY

The Eisenhower administration is expected to urge Congress to boost the interest rate on college dormitory loans.

John C. Hazeltine, commissioner of the Community Facilities Administration, says that he favors hiking the level from 2 1/2 to 3 1/4 per cent.

He said he had to present to Congress "the basis for a more equitable interest rate and one which will make it possible for the greatest proportion of these loans to pass into the hands of private investment."

Hazeltine admitted the stand might not be too popular, but odds favor approval by his chief, Housing and Home Finance Administrator Albert M. Cole.

The Community Facilities staff has been "flooded" with dormitory loan applications following passage of the 1955 law, which dropped the interest rate and lengthened repayment time up to 30 years, Hazeltine said.

He added that, at the present rate, applications would eat up the 500 million dollar government loan allowance in "a very short time." Dormitory construction needs have been estimated at 4 billion dollars over the next few years.

Some legislation before Congress would abolish the college housing program. Others would boost the interest rate higher than 3 1/4 per cent.

By getting more private money into the program through raising interest rates, Hazeltine declared, more college housing needs would be fulfilled. Reliance solely on the federal government, he added, would lead to disappointment and delay in many cases.

At the same time, Hazeltine gave assurance that the Eisenhower administration would permit the program to develop "without budgetary limits to the full extent authorized by the law." Still, he pointed out, "Only the most pressing of needs can be satisfied."

He termed the present interest rate "artificially low," with the result that private participation in financing residence hall construction was discouraged.

Admitting that college loans are "not truly expense items," he countered that they do represent now "an annual net outgo from the treasury."

Sums of the magnitude of college housing needs today "should come primarily from the private investment resources of the nation, rather than from the federal government," according to Hazeltine.

Where a college's credit is shaky, he continued, the government can be or assistance, but in other cases it would be preferable for the institutions to go to private lending agencies. In the long run, that would benefit everybody, he said.

Your Health

By DR. EDWIN JORDAN

Diabetes Hereditary?

Most difficult to answer is a question often received by this writer on what the chances are of a child with one or more parents with diabetes developing the same disease. As one lady wrote, "My husband has been taking insulin for many years. We have a two year old son who seems perfectly normal. Will he have diabetes too?"

The question is whether diabetes should be considered an inherited disease. The best way to reply to this is to say that it is considered an hereditary disease but certainly not all children of parents with diabetes develop it. Furthermore, only about one quarter of those who develop diabetes can dig up a family history of the disease.

Our present knowledge of the way in which diabetes is carried suggests that on the average only about one child in four would have diabetes if one parent has the disease and the other is not carrying any tendency in that direction.

If both parents have diabetes, one might expect all the children to have it also, though it does not always turn out this way.

There are other things besides heredity which enter into the development of diabetes. The condition comes from a disorder of certain cells in a small gland lying inside the abdomen known as the pancreas. This in turn is affected by other internal glands, such as the pituitary, the adrenals and the thyroid.

Particularly important from the practical standpoint is the knowledge that overweight greatly increases the chances of developing diabetes.

In one series of diabetic patients, more than three quarters were definitely overweight and only eight in one hundred were below normal weight. Just exactly why this occurs is still obscure, but possibly a person that is already susceptible to diabetes cannot stand the extra strain of fat and the pancreatic cells responsible for the disease break down more easily under such circumstances.

Silver Linings

However optimistic — even idealistic — people may be about life in general, most of them look upon each day's report of the news with at least a sprinkling of cynicism. They are convinced that "you never see any good news in the papers these days."

This type of skeptic must have been startled, therefore, when on a single day last week the following stories broke like this:

Morning: An 11-year-old boy had wandered off a trail in the Arizona wilds while horseback riding with his father the night before. The father had heard two calls for help and nothing more.

Afternoon: Searching parties found the youngster suffering only from hunger.

Morning: Boats and planes were searching the Mediterranean Sea for signs of an American private plane long overdue at Nice, France, with five persons aboard. Afternoon: The plane, with all passengers intact, arrived safely in England after bypassing Nice.

Morning: Four men in two jet planes had been missing since the day before on flights from an Air Force base in Alaska. Afternoon: Rescuers found three of the airmen, who had parachuted to safety after the two jets collided in midair.

Morning: Two young mothers, separated from a hunting party, had been missing overnight in sub-zero temperatures while a near-blizzard howled through Montana. Afternoon: Both were found alive and well on a snow-covered mountainside.

The moral of this, of course, is one most people lose sight of too often: Things, even in the day's news, are seldom as bad as they seem.

America's Margaret

The United States, like Great Britain, also has a Margaret whose romances are given close attention in the news columns, the latest spate of which concerns Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey.

The American Margaret, daughter of former President Harry S. Truman, may be about as close to being a member of a United States royal family as anyone in this country ever gets. But there the similarities of the American and British cases end.

The world concedes to both the principals in the romance, if any, the right to make their own decisions.

Margaret concedes to liking Meyner because he isn't a "stuffed shirt."

The governor is complimentary about Margaret but when it comes to discussing his dates with her, he has what undoubtedly is the final word — he says they are his private business.

'I Call It 'The Political Scene''

The Right To Speak

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

After Thomas E. Murray's speech recommending that all the nations be invited to attend a blowing up of a hydrogen bomb people get an impression from witnessing such enormous explosions that they never can get from just reading about them."

In a word, he endorsed Murray's proposal. Subsequently the other commissioners of the Atomic Energy Commission jumped all over Murray for talking out of turn. They said that this idea had been discussed and turned down.

DISCUSSED and considered by whom? Turned down by whom? Surely this is fundamentally a question for the American people and the Congress.

However that may be, Murray had his say; Quarles endorsed what Murray said. Then the other commissioners had their say, and then this is reported:

"The Air Force later said Quarles was unaware that the Murray plan had been rejected by the AEC. A spokesman said Quarles was expressing his personal views, but probably would have declined to do so if he had known that the Commission had taken an official position."

What kind of brain-washing is this? Quarles is a distinguished man, knowledgeable in the science of atomic fission and fusion. He has experience in the entire field.

WHAT PRESS AGENT in the Pentagon possessed the authority to make him look ridiculous by telling reporters that Quarles does not know what he is talking about? Of course, Quarles was expressing "his personal views." Whose else's view should he have expressed?

Has the day come in the United States when a man may not express "his personal views," no matter how expert he may be in his field because a government press agent acts as a political commissar in his office?

The Henning Committee ought to investigate the role that the government press agent plays, as a political commissar, in suppressing the news that should go to the American people.

After all, this is our country; all the money that the government spends is our money; if we are led to war, it is our sons who are maimed and killed. Since when have we shifted in this country from the concept that public officials are servants of the people to the reality that temporary officials and their appointees are our masters?

OF THIS YOU can be certain: You and I do not know much about the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb. Unless we are experts in the field, we can hardly understand what it is all about.

We have been told that these bombs can destroy the world. Now along comes Thomas E. Murray, a trained and successful engineer, a commissioner of the Atomic Energy Commission, who says that radioactive strontium, once it is shot into the atmosphere moves along for years and comes down not only on the target but everywhere upon the shooter as well as those shot upon.

This is what Murray said on this subject: "Before these 1954 tests took place a policy of almost utter silence had been established. The decision was made to use only two statements — first an announcement that tests were to be held, and then a short guarded statement at their conclusion.

"However, the inscrutable Providence of God, our Father, decided otherwise. Radioactive dust settled on the Fortunate Dragon, some 90 miles downwind."

YOU REMEMBER the results? The news about the potential hazard of radioactive fallout from thermonuclear weapons burst on thermonuclear weapons burst on the world the first fateful news about the lurking catastrophe that may possibly lie in wait for all of us.

In this instance the official policy of secrecy proved inept. When the secret came out, through the wrong channels, the shock to world opinion rivaled in its own way the blast of the H-bomb itself.

"True, information about the radioactive fallout problem was subsequently released to the public early this year and further information has since followed. But there is still more that must be explained to the public."

Then Murray explains: "The thermonuclear bomb crosses the threshold into a separate category of power by reason of the sheer force and reach of its blast."

Its explosion is so tremendous that it must be reckoned as a different kind of explosion. But this is not the more important difference. The thermonuclear bomb... releases dangerous radioactive fission products into the atmosphere... A sufficiently large number of such explosions would render the earth uninhabitable to man...

Aid Without Control

By RAYMOND MOLEY

In the course of the next few weeks there will be a great deal of talk and of writing about Federal aid for schools. In the course of that discussion it will, as always, be said that it is possible to have a system of general Federal subsidies without any Federal control.

It might be well, however, for those citizens who for official reasons or as mere parents may be interested to consider carefully whether this is a possible or reasonable assumption.

Some years ago, when the senate was considering a bill for federal school aid in an amount of 300 million dollars, of which one of the sponsors was the late Sen. Taft, the question of control was raised on the floor. Taft replied that if language could prevent control to follow a grant, his bill contained that language. In the great honesty that characterized him Taft did not add that language alone cannot guarantee the freedom of a subsidized school.

On this subject a former U.S. commissioner of education, Dr. John J. Tigert, said this:

"My experience in handling federal subsidies for education under the limited acts which are now in existence has taught me that you must either have federal control and interference or you must have misappropriation of funds and waste."

"Reason and experience both indicate that federal money cannot be expended wisely and efficiently except by exercising federal control and supervision, even then there is considerable waste... If we embark upon a program of turning over federal money to schools without any strings attached, it is only a question of time until the waste, extravagance and misuse of these funds will result in a reaction or a change. The alternative is federal control."

The Education Committee of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, which was headed by Adam S. Bension and for which the extraordinarily informed Roger A. Freeman served as research adviser, said in 1954:

"If states cannot find ways to allocate the almost 3 billion dollars in state aid in such a way as to assure adequate educational opportunity what reason do we have to assume that they would accomplish the objective with a few hundred million dollars in federal funds? Federal action could bring about universal educational opportunity only if grants-in-aid were conditioned upon control of distribution of both state and federal funds."

The plain fact is that if the federal government appropriates money for any purpose, it should assume the responsibility for the way it is spent. This means control.

Perhaps, as some will argue, the control can be limited only to the purpose for which the grant is made. That is, if the grant is for school-building, there will be control only over the expenditure of money for brick and mortar. And the nature of the facts and ideas which are taught will not be affected.

This may be possible, but before Congress embarks on the sort of program that is likely to emerge from the White House Conference, it ought to be certain beyond any reasonable doubt.

The Bible says the ark was made of gopher wood, which many translators believe to be cypress.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Love Note By Mail

"(In New York the postal authorities are considering using the subway to transport mail.)"—News team.)

Dear Babe: Well, I do not know if this letter will convey my tender thoughts, as it may travel by subway. I want you to know I love you dearly, but an expression of affection like that can take a terrible beating in subway transportation and even the word "LOVE" could come out all jammed up between some word in another paragraph, or even get lost. You are in my thoughts ever hour, my darling, and I will repeat this statement and get it into this love letter twice just in case the original statement gets knocked all out of shape by a sudden stop between one subway station and the next.

I CAN'T SLEEP NIGHTS, Geraldine, on account of you art always in my thoughts and if this sentence comes out all balled up so that there is some other name like Fannie or Minnie in it instead of your name, I hope you will understand that this letter got trampled on with some other letters in the subway rush and is nothing like the note it was when I mailed it. My love for you is very strong, honey, but whether it is strong enough to get through a subway trip okay is not certain. Love is a many splendored thing, like they say, but modern underground transit is not a many splendored experience for man, beast or souvenir postcard.

Did you get my letter of two days ago? I had a dream it never reached you on account of a terrible crash of letters at the Times Square Station in which it got messed up something awful and the mailman could not, even recognize the address.

(In my dream it wound up in the morning mail of a big meat-packing corporation and the vice president couldn't make head or tail of it because the part where I wrote, "I cannot live without you my darling" got jammed into a part of a butcher's letter to which had said, "Please increase my order to one hundred pounds of hamburger" and all he could make of it was, "I cannot live without hamburger so increase my darling to one hundred pounds."

Anyhow I am writing you every day, honey, and if you don't get one daily you will know it couldn't stand the rough stuff. (Business letters are tough and some of them get through in pretty good shape, but love letters are pretty delicate.)

Please write me every day, too, and mail it in an extra heavy envelope, using one of those stamps with a picture of a general on it, as it may take a fight to get it through. Listen, babe, will you marry me? Do not answer this question by mail as I don't want the "yes" to get stepped on, slugged around or elbowed until it looks like "no." Phone or wire.

A million kisses, subject to overcrowding doorway battles, emergency brakes and so forth.

Wilbur.

DO YOU SUPPOSE Adlai Stevenson in choosing Jim Finnegan as his campaign manager sent a wire "Finnegan: I'm in again."

FIRST SNOW

WHEN THE FIRST SNOW of the season comes, it brings with it a variety of reactions as different as the snowflakes themselves. For kids, it means snowmen and snowball fights in the schoolyard. Artists like to paint the white-blanketed hillsides while homeowners hate to shovel the stuff from their driveways. The coal dealer smiles when the snows fall, but the traffic policemen don't because they know it means smashups in ice and slush. One time of year when nearly everyone welcomes snow, though, is the Christmas season. That's when snow comes into its own.

Pat Kiser of Golden, Colo., does some sketching in snow.

HOLE IN THE CASE—This two-by-four foot hole in a London, England, street was ordered to appear in court, but failed to show up. A truck crashed into it and damages had to be fixed. Then officials found that no one owned the hole since it had been on road owned by a company that had gone bankrupt. A summons is on barricade.

ELEPHANT IS IN THE STREETS—Elizabeth, a puzzled pachyderm, was supposed to appear on a Chicago television show, but, when she was being unloaded from her truck, she decided to get away from it all and take a walk. Elizabeth was finally corralled.

In Ridgefield, N. J., Doris Boretz uses a large brush to clean snow off her windshield.

This tractor-trailer unit crashed through guard rail near Dorsey, Md. No one was hurt.

Ohio Nears Record In Liquor Sales

COLUMBUS, Ohio — State Liquor Director William C. Bryant says Ohio is approaching a record 200-million-dollar sale of liquor this year.

Latest records, up to Nov. 5, show state liquor sales totaled $155,091,581.

"We usually do a third of our year's business in the last 60 days because of the heavy Christmas and New Year's buying," said Bryant.

"We are going to end up this year very close to 200 million dollars. That will be an all-time high figure."

The record was set in 1953 when sales totaled $195,695,08. Sales up to Nov. 5 that year were $153,002,989.

Sales to that date in 1955 are two million dollars more. But Bryant points out liquor prices are higher this year.

This is largely due to the additional 50-cent-a-gallon markup as of last June 6 to help finance an expanded mental health program for Ohio.

Bryant said an anticipated increase in sales this year will mean a larger profit for the liquor department.

In the peak year of 1953, profit was $19,443,000. Last year it was $18,226,000. Bryant expects to go over the 20 million dollar mark this year.

The director also forecast a shortage of supplies in some of the "well-advertised" brands of Scotch whiskeys for Christmas and New Year's. He said this includes "about a dozen" of the 41 brands of imported Scotch on state store shelves.

Segregation

preme Court asserted in its historic public school ruling of May 1954, that "the policy of separating the races is usually interpreted as noting the inferiority of the Negro group."

The commission recalled that race discrimination complaints have been coming before it since two months after its organization in 1887.

Through the years, the ICC sanctioned "separate-but-equal" accommodations in the transportation field.

Served Behind Curtain

About 10 years ago, it gave its approval to an arrangement worked out by the Southern Railway for serving Negro travelers in its dining cars behind a curtain. The Supreme Court in 1950 condemned this, striking down segregation in railroad dining cars.

Under orders from the court, the ICC issued the appropriate orders relating to diners.

In the NAACP complaints dealt with today, the association also sought action against separate lunchroom facilities for white and colored travelers in the Broad Street Station at Richmond, Va.

However, the ICC said this lunchroom was operated under lease by the Union News Co., not engaged in transportation, and that it had no jurisdiction over that lunchroom.

The commission also dismissed an NAACP complaint against the Texas and Pacific Railway because it said the evidence presented in relation to that company failed to show how it handled interstate travelers.

Prisoner Admitted To Hospital Here

LISBON — John Wallent, 48, of Columbiana, sentenced Nov. 17 for grand larceny, became ill and was taken Thursday at 9:30 a.m. to Salem City Hospital by Deputy Sheriff Al Hartman.

Wallent was being held in village jail awaiting a trip to the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus. He and Paul Miner, 37, also of Columbiana, were convicted of grand larceny Oct. 27 by a common pleas jury for the theft of railroad equipment.

Judge Joel H. Sharp sentenced both men to terms of 1 to 7 years. Wallent was treated Nov. 5 by a village physician after he broke his left hand in a jail fight.

Child's Desire For Kiss From Dad Brings Tragedy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Little Mary Lou wanted a kiss from her daddy.

The father, Lewis P. Jones, at the wheel of his car, home-bound from a Thanksgiving Day visit at his mother's home, turned to his wife, Mary Ann, and said: "Hold the steering wheel, I'll kiss her. She won't let us alone until I do."

Then the father leaned over the seat and kissed his two-year-old daughter.

The car went out of control on U.S. 33 near here, striking two trees.

Mary Lou, hurt fatally, died in a local hospital shortly after the accident.

The parents suffered minor injuries.

Farmer, Wife, 2 Sons Die As Home Burns

NASHVILLE, Ind. (AP) — A farmer, his wife and their two sons died early today in a fire that destroyed their hill country home before the three young daughters could get help from a neighbor.

Sheriff Lester Percifield said the dead were Kenneth Raymond Graham, 37; his wife, Mildred Lucille, 33; and their sons, Kenneth Randall, 7, and Ronald Lee, 6 weeks.

A neighbor, Kenneth Carmichael, said only one wall of the two-story house was standing when he arrived from his home half a mile away.

The oldest child, Carolyn Sue, 8, said her father awakened her about 4 a.m. and carried the youngest daughter, Sheila Marie, 2, outside, then went back inside to rescue the others but never came out.

Meanwhile, Shirley Ann, 5, had made her way out of the house with Carolyn. They said the wallpaper was ablaze.

The girls took refuge from the freezing cold in the family car, waiting in vain for their parents and brothers to come out. Then they walked through the wooded country to Carmichael's home.

The volunteer fire department from Nashville was finally called, though the house was in ruins by the time firemen arrived. The home was deep in the hills about 15 miles southeast of this resort town.

Sheriff Percifield said the fire apparently started in the kitchen while the family slept upstairs.

Tear Gas Halts Savannah Riot

Unruly Mob Gathers After Football Game

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—Police fired a tear gas bomb into an unruly mob which staged a two-hour riot in the heart of Savannah Thursday night after the annual Savannah High - Benedictine football game.

The bomb did the job—but not until six policemen had been injured and hundreds of dollars worth of fire-fighting equipment destroyed. Several persons were arrested for disorderly conduct.

Two of the officers were hospitalized briefly.

The disturbance centered around Savannah's main intersection, where victors in the annual cross-town football rivalry traditionally burn the "coffin" of the losers. Savannah won the game 9-6.

Police said between 6,000 and 7,000 students, adults and spectators jammed the area at Bull and Broughton streets.

Some members of the crowd said police had no right to interfere. "It was just one of those things," said one police officer. "It happens every year—only this time the students worked up a little more enthusiasm than usual."

When students from Savannah High set fire to the "coffin," firemen were summoned to douse the blaze before it damaged the pavement. Dozens in the crowd set upon the hose, fire extinguishers and other fire equipment.

Police arrested one youth and took him into a restaurant to call for a patrol wagon. Part of the mob entered the restaurant and another youth broke a window. He too was arrested.

The mob attempted unsuccessfully to overturn two fire chiefs' automobiles and the patrol wagon. An officer was injured when a brick was thrown through a police patrol car.

Holiday Traffic Leaves 9 Dead

2 Akron People Killed In Truck-Car Crash

By The Associated Press
Thanksgiving was a day of celebration for most Ohioans. For some it spelled tragedy.

An Associated Press tabulation of traffic fatalities from 6 a. m. Wednesday to midnight Thursday showed nine persons died on Ohio highways.

The first death came Wednesday evening when a pedestrian was struck by a car in Lake County.

On Thanksgiving Day, a 1-year-old Columbus girl was killed when her father, who was driving the family car, turned to lift her into the front seat. The state highway patrol said the child's mother was entrusted to the steering wheel but let go of it to help her husband.

Two Akron residents were killed in a car-truck collision near Elyria as they drove to a family Thanksgiving get-together.

The list of fatalities: Wednesday night:

Louis Schupetz, 55, Perry, struck a car as he crossed Ohio 20 in Lake County near the Ashtabula County line.

Thursday:
Alfred Moore, 32, Harts, W. Va., in a car-train collision at a railroad crossing on U. S. 23 north of Carey (Wyandot County).

Frank Eugene Reger, 33, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Eva Michalez, 49, both of Akron, when their car collided with a truck at the junction of Ohio 76 and U. S. 10, east of Elyria.

Glenn Van Orsdale, 25, Canton, when the auto in which he was riding struck a utility pole on Ohio 153 east of Canton.

Miss Susan Messersmith, 58, Warren, when her car hit a utility pole in that city.

Edith Ann Collins, 5, struck by a car on Ohio 127 in Symmes Corners (Butler County) where she lived.

Mary Lou Jones, 1, Columbus, when her family's car left U. S. 23 and crashed into two trees, two miles south of Dublin (Franklin County), as her father turned from the wheel to lift her into the front seat.

Frederick Guhl, 34, Haskins, when his car overturned at a Wood County railroad crossing three miles southwest of Perrysburg.

Bowl Officials Watch As Five Contenders Play Saturday

Sugar, Cotton Bids Still Open

Navy Favored For One Spot If It Tops Army

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Saturday is $$$-day for Navy, Mississippi, Georgia Tech, Auburn and Vanderbilt as Sugar and Cotton bowl officials take a last look at the five gridiron contenders before making selections to fill their two remaining lucrative Jan. 2 berths.

Navy, geared for its traditional interservice run-in with Army at Philadelphia, is the pivotal club. Word has it the Middles are favored for the Cotton Bowl opposite Texas Christian.

Favored, that is, if the Middles can dispose of Army again. If Navy accepts the Cotton Bowl invitation expected to follow a Middle victory, it would leave the four Southeastern Conference schools battling to win the Sugar Bowl spot against Pitt.

If Navy declines the bid, or loses to the Cadets, it would leave the Cotton and Sugar bowl selectors switching their bids to the SEC quarter — Ole Miss, Tech, Auburn and Vandy.

The SEC champ generally winds up in New Orleans at the Sugar Bowl, but there's no guarantee. And there's no guarantee as to who the SEC champ will be either. All four of the bowl hopefuls have a chance.

The Gator Bowl, Sun Bowl and lesser postseason games also hinge on the outcome of tomorrow's games.

Two bowls already have their pairings made in view of conference tieups. The Rose Bowl matches Michigan State of the Big Ten and UCLA of the Pacific Coast. The Orange Bowl pairs Oklahoma, of the Big Seven, and Maryland of the Atlantic Coast Conference, both unbeaten.

All four powers are listed among the top six in the Associated Press poll, with Oklahoma No. 1 and in search of its 29th straight victory in a regular season windup against Oklahoma A&M Saturday. The other three already have called it quits until Jan. 2.

Mississippi, beaten by Navy 21-0 in the last Sugar Bowl after winning the SEC crown, looks like a repeater, but Tech, Auburn and Vandy still have a chance. Ole Miss plays Mississippi State in the toughest assignment facing the four bowl hopefuls. Tech plays Georgia, Auburn meets winless Alabama and Vandy faces Tennessee.

Some of the traditional season-ending games were played Thursday, with Texas delivering a shocker by upsetting Texas A&M 21-6. That left Texas Christian a clear field for the Southwest Conference crown and an unchallenged right to fill the host spot in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas A&M was shooting for its first conference title in 14 years, knowing it couldn't get the bowl berth because of probationary action for violating conference recruiting codes. The conference gave TCU the Cotton bowl bid last week when it was clear the Frogs could be no worse than runner-up. Now TCU can win the title by beating Southern Methodist Saturday.

In other Thanksgiving Day games, Cornell handed Penn its 18th straight defeat 39-7; Wichita gained a share of the Missouri Valley title with Detroit by routing Tulsa 54-0; Wyoming muffed a share of the Skyline crown with Colgate A&M by losing to Denver 6-3 on the last play of the game; Utah edged Utah State 14-13; Miami (Ohio) beat Cincinnati 14-0 for its first unbeaten-untied season since 1921; William & Mary upset Richmond in a 6-6 tie; and VPI whipped VMI 39-13.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—James A. Milholland appeared in more than 400 films, a character actor who in 1933, died Thursday after a brief illness.

Army-Navy Game Pits Welsh Against Cinderella Passer

By FRANK ECK
PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—There is less than two years difference in the ages of the Army and Navy quarterbacks yet it will be man against boy when the two service academy teams clash in their 56th meeting at Municipal Stadium on Saturday.

When it comes to experience in signal calling, George Welsh, 22, of Navy is the man, and Don Hollender, 21, of Army is the boy. Welsh, from Coaldale, Pa., is only 164 pounds and 5 feet 10 but he has been throwing passes to All-America Navy end Ron Beagle for the last five years. They put in a year together at Wyoming Seminary.

Welsh runs the Middles attack with the dexterity of a magician and his coach, Eddie Erdelatz not only calls him a "right-handed Frankie Albert," but "the best split T quarterback in the nation." In his three years on the Navy varsity he has completed 162 passes in 299 attempts for 20 touchdowns.

He was the big wheel in Navy's Sugar Bowl triumph over Mississippi last New Year's Day and he's been Navy's big gun ever since. Meanwhile, Army's Hollender, 21, from Webster, N.Y., is a novice as quarterbacks go. A crack end for Coach Red Blaik on the 1954 West Point team, Hollender was shifted to quarterback last spring but a leg injury limited his action to only one week at the field general spot.

Hollender handles the ball well, runs hard, defends his position adequately and throws some long left-handed passes. But observers say his lack of experience as a quarterback is evident in a game.

That's why many of the 100,000 fans who witness Saturday's big game, plus many television viewers, will be rooting for the Cinderella boy who has been expected to fill a man's shoes overnight.

Green Bay Beaten By Lions, 24-10

DETROIT (AP)—Halfback Lew Carpenter led the Detroit Lions to a 24-10 National Football League victory over the Green Bay Packers Thursday.

Carpenter scored two touchdowns, ran 120 yards from scrimmage and caught five passes for 26 yards in a brilliant one-man show. He broke up the fumble-filled game with an explosive 49-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

The play cracked a 10-all tie and brought the Lions their third victory against seven losses. It also squared Green Bay's record at 5-5 and just about ended all hopes the Packers had for a title in the NFL's western division.

Sonny Gandee nailed down the decision for Detroit later in the fourth period by recovering a Green Bay fumble and racing 46 yards for a touchdown.

Green Bay took a 10-0 lead in the first period on a field goal by Fred Cone, a five-yard touchdown pass from Tobin Rote to Gary Knafele and Cone's conversion.

Detroit evened the score in the second period when Bobby Layne and Carpenter clicked on a three-yard pass play and Doak Walker kicked a 25-yard field goal after converting. Walker added the other two conversions in the fourth period.

Army's Line, Tops In Nation To Be Tested By Navy Attack

By ORLO ROBERTON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Army and Navy meet on the football field Saturday for the 56th time with the statistics indicating this colorful gridiron classic at Municipal Stadium could well be a test of defensive skill.

Army, a 6½-point underdog, is the nation's No. 1 defensive team. It has yielded only 139.5 yards per game in winning five of eight contests. Navy, last year's 27-0 winner, ranks third defensively. The Middles have given up an average of 169 yards a game while winning six, losing to Notre Dame and tying Duke.

But, as has often been the case in the heated interservice rivalry, the offense could well rise to unexpected heights.

Navy's attack is geared to the throwing arm of 165-pound George Welsh from Coaldale, Pa., fully recovered from a sore toe that hampered his play in late season games. Navy Coach Eddie Erdelatz calls Welsh the greatest quarterback he has ever coached.

Don Hollender, a 187-pounder from Webster, N. Y., and one of the most controversial figures in college football this season, directs the Army attack. A great end last year, he was switched to quarterback, where he has shown greater ability at running the ball than at passing. But figures show he has completed passes for six touchdowns, only two less than Welsh.

Hollender has been blamed by some for the Cadets' defeats by Michigan, Syracuse and Yale but veteran Coach Earl (Red) Blaik has placed the blame on mistakes by the entire team.

Both coaches were confident of victory as they led their teams into Municipal Stadium today for brief workouts before retiring to suburban clubs to await game time Saturday.

The weather prospect was fair and cool with a fast field. The game will be televised (NBC, 1:15 p. m. (EST.))

Irish Favored Over USC On Saturday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Notre Dame and Southern California, meeting for the 27th time on the gridiron in an epic series that started in 1926, wind up their 1955 campaign Saturday, with the Irish favored to hand the Coast team its fifth defeat of the season.

The Irish rate at least a one touchdown edge. They hold a 17-7-2 margin over the Trojans in the series.

A crowd approaching 100,000 is expected for the kickoff, set for noon, Central Standard Time.

Miami, O., Trips Cincinnati, Hopes For Bid to Jacksonville's Gator Bowl

CINCINNATI (AP)—If the sponsors of the Gator Bowl game are interested, Miami University's unbeaten and untied Redskins will be very happy to display their football talents in that annual game at Jacksonville, Fla., on Jan. 2.

Miami, which earlier was crowned Mid-American Conference champion wound up its nine-game schedule here yesterday without a defeat or a tie by beating its 60-game rival, Cincinnati, 14-0.

Immediately after the game the Redskins players went into a closed door huddle with Dean Raymond Glos and voted to accept a Gator Bowl bid if one is forthcoming.

There have been reports Miami is being considered for the game at Jacksonville.

But the players aren't interested in any of the smaller bowl games. Athletic Director John Brinkley said Miami has not yet been invited to the Gator Bowl but he added the vote of the players was taken today so the school could give an immediate answer if an offer comes along.

A bad attack of fumbles plagued Miami through much of yesterday's game with Cincinnati and it wasn't until the fourth quarter that the Redskins were able to push across the touchdowns that brought victory.

Miami fumbled five times in the contest and the underdog Cincinnati recovered all of them.

The most damaging miscue came early in the game after Miami had driven to the Cincinnati back five yards but on fourth down the Redskins lost their chance for a touchdown and also the ball on a fumble.

Early in the fourth period an exchange of fumbles left Miami with the ball on Cincinnati's 31. They netted seven yards on three running plays and then Tom Dimitroff passed to Pres Bliss for the touchdown.

The final marker came with only 20 seconds to play after a 44-yard march.

Tirel Burton registered the touchdown from the one and the six-pointer enabled the fleet back to set a new Miami individual scoring record for one season. He chalked up 84 points this season and the old record was 78, set by Tom Pagna in 1953.

The victory was Miami's 28th against Cincinnati in the series which had its beginning in 1888. Cincinnati has won 26 games and there have been six ties.

It also gave Miami its first perfect season since 1921 and gave Coach Ara Parseghian a record of 39 triumphs as against 6 defeats and 1 tie in his five years as head coach at Miami.

20 Teams Unbeaten, Untied For Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Twenty teams have managed to stay unbeaten and untied in college football this season, and only one, Oklahoma, still has a regularly scheduled game left.

The Sooners, No. 1 in the Associated Press poll, wrap up their season against Oklahoma A & M Saturday. Then they make ready for the Orange Bowl and Maryland, the only other major team on the list.

Two clubs dropped from the "perfect" ranks Thursday, Northern (S. D.) Teachers lost to Kearney (Neb.) 34-13, in the inaugural Botany Bowl, and Albany (Ga.) was clipped by Ft. Valley State 20-0.

Cardenas Family Holds Star Yachting Titles

HAVANA (AP)—The Cardenas family appears to have a strangle hold on the world Star class yachting championship. Charles De Cardenas, head of the family, won his second straight title Thursday and his closest competitor was his son, Jorge, who finished second.

The top U. S. skipper was William Gentzlinger of Huntington Bay, N. Y. He was third with 147 points.

Oklahoma Nears 2nd Grid Championship

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—When the 20th annual Associated Press college football poll ends this weekend, Oklahoma's Sooners may have achieved their second mythical national championship in history.

To nail down the honor, the Sooners—who close Saturday against Oklahoma A & M—must hang onto the No. 1 spot in the AP poll which is the basis for awarding the coveted Father O'Donnell trophy.

Results of the final week's poll will be published Tuesday. The O'Donnell trophy, named in honor of the late Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, former Irish football player and Notre Dame president from 1940 through 1946, must be won three times to be retired.

Notre Dame inherited sponsorship of a national championship trophy by winning the University of Minnesota's Williams trophy for the third time in 1947.

Oklahoma took the O'Donnell trophy in 1950 and must hold fast this season against Michigan State and Maryland, who also have one leg on the trophy with 1952 and 1953 triumphs respectively.

The winner of last year's trophy was Ohio State, just crowned Big Ten champion for the second straight year, while Michigan won it in 1948; Notre Dame in 1949; and Tennessee in 1951.

14 Colleges Compete For Dinghy Championship

CHICAGO (AP)—Skippers from 14 colleges, including favored Brown University, eastern intercollegiate champion, begin three days of competition today for the Midwest Intercollegiate Dinghy Championship.

They will sail their small craft over Belmont Harbor, protected from the icy blasts of Lake Michigan.

Other entries are from Harvard, Michigan State, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Northwestern, Western Reserve, Purdue, Michigan, Cincinnati, Syracuse, Toronto, Wisconsin and Illinois Tech.

Olson Resumes Training For Robinson Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Middleweight king Bobo Olson returns to Chicago from San Francisco today to re-open training quarters for his once-penned title defense against former champion Sugar Ray Robinson.

The 15 round title bout in Chicago Stadium is Dec. 9. It will be televised nationally with the Chicago area blacked out.

The original date was Nov. 4, but a sprained ankle suffered by Robinson Oct. 25 forced postponement. Robinson is expected in Chicago Dec. 2.

DENIES WORKERS RETURN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U.P.)—Mel Harter, vice president of Local 746, IUE-CIO, says the reported back-to-work movement at the strike-bound Columbus Westinghouse plant is "just a 'just propaganda.'"

He said a few striking employees started the back-to-work talk in an effort to get others to follow.

"They won't succeed," Harter said. A newspaper here reported about 200 workers were planning to return to their jobs Monday.

Youths Who Get Into Trouble To Get Individual Attention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—More Ohio boys and girls who get into trouble will get individual attention beginning next Jan. 1.

That's when the expanded program of the Juvenile Diagnostic Center in Columbus begins, when boys and girls from all 88 counties will gather instead of being sent directly to a reform school.

Right now, boys from 50 counties, those with less than 40,000 population, go to the center. But courts send girls directly to the Girls Industrial School at Delaware.

Only girls there now are those referred to the center for guidance by private agencies and courts, but who otherwise wouldn't end up at GIS. This service is being discontinued.

When the new year begins, about one-third of all delinquent boys, those 10 through 14 years of age, and all delinquent girls 12 through 17 years old, will go to the center. The reason boys 15, 16 and 17 years of age will continue to be sent to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster is because the center isn't big enough to handle all boys committed by judges.

John R. Ferguson, chief of the Division of Juvenile Research, Classification and Training, says about 20 girls and from 25 to 30 boys will enter the center each month.

The average stay will be about 60 days, based on past experience. Some will stay for only 10 days, others maybe for 90 days.

There are plans afoot to double the center's capacity to 30 children, using funds from the public buildings bond issue approved Nov. 8 by the voters. This would permit giving help to all delinquent youths committed to the center.

Right now, the center's population is about 130, with 160 staff members from psychiatrists to food servers working there.

"Every delinquent boy or girl is an individual," says Ferguson. "We treat every person as such. Some should be sent to reform schools after we find out what is back of his delinquent behavior. Or perhaps an institution for mentally retarded children is the answer."

"Still others should be in private boarding schools, in foster homes, or in the home of relatives. We won't send a boy or girl to a reform school unless we know that is the place best for him or her."

There is no single reason why children become delinquent, and thus one method of treatment won't be effective on all such boys and girls, Ferguson added. If treatment weren't tailored to the individual, some cases would become worse instead of better.

"First we need a comprehensive professional diagnosis, and then the individualized prescription for treatment," he said. "We have the staff for that, ready to work with the least difficult and most complex cases."

Workers at the center will separate the mentally ill, mentally deficient, neurotic, psychopathic, physically handicapped and socially maladjusted—and plan care for each.

Ferguson will make the decision on what service or facility each child needs after the needs are turned up at the center. Actually some treatment will be given at the center, formed by Ferguson on the "short term type of treatment."

Senators Eye Work of Ohio Narcotics Law

CLEVELAND (AP)—Senate investigators came here today for a look at how Ohio's new narcotics law is working out.

U. S. Senator Price Daniel (D-Tex.), chairman of the subcommittee, said bigtime dope racketeers began moving out of Ohio on Sept. 16, when the state's new, tough laws went into effect.

The new laws provide a 20-years-to-life penalty for a first conviction. They are much sterner than federal laws, which call for a 2-5 year term for first offenders.

Daniel said: "In Chicago and again in Detroit we learned that some of the top men in the dope business in Ohio had left when the new law became effective."

Some of the narcotics racketeers have turned part of their business over to addicts, he said. That makes the racketeers liable to the conspiracy section of the Ohio law, which has a 50-years-to-life penalty.

Today's hearing, a one-day session, ends the subcommittee's month-long tour of cities in the northern part of the nation.

KILLED—Pretty Sally Shedd, 25, Santa Barbara, Calif., a United Air Lines stewardess, was shot and killed by a jilted suitor, Bob Clendenin, New York City, who then shot himself twice. The shooting took place aboard a United Air Lines plane in Seattle just before the aircraft was to take off for Los Angeles. Clendenin later died in a hospital.

Former Judge, 96, Dies In Cincinnati Hospital

CINCINNATI (AP)—David D. De Mott Woodmansee, 96, a former Common Pleas Court judge here, died last night in Christ Hospital. He had suffered a hip injury two weeks ago in a fall at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Franklin Brown.

Mr. Woodmansee was born in Highland County and long was active in Republican politics and spoke in many parts of the country in behalf of the presidential candidacy of former President William McKinley.

BRAKEMAN KILLED

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—B. V. McCain, 35, of Lancaster, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, was injured fatally here yesterday as he fell under the wheels of a train. McCain was coupling cars when the accident occurred. His legs were severed.
